James Last is one of the most famous and successful bandleaders in the world. For over 70 years, he has inspired the music world with unique arrangements, incomparable melodies and great compositions. Over the course of his career, more than 80 million records have been sold from his approximately 190 record productions. Whether in Germany or Canada, in Australia or South Africa, in China, Holland or Great Britain: The swinging happy sound of the orchestra became an international trademark.

On the occasion of his 90th birthday in April, a strictly limited edition 25 CD box with over 40 digitally remastered original albums covering not only 50 years of his career, but also numerous James Last series such as "Non Stop Dancing", "Ännchen von Tharau", "Käpt'nJames", "Polka-Party" and cult albums like "Voodoo Party", "Hair", "Hansimania", "Seduction" or "James Last plays the Beatles". Other highlights include the two Japanese albums "Sekai Wa Futari No Tameni" and "Paintings".

The 68-page booklet contains personal lines of the Last family, liner notes by Thomas Macho (co-author of the James Last biography: "James Last - My Autobiography") a text by Thomas Eggert (longtime keyboarder and good friend of James Last) and numerous private and public pictures and 5 photo cards with interesting facts about the bandleader and his successes.

The high-quality designed box is strictly limited and for every Hansi fan an absolute must have!

On the occasion of his 90th birthday in April, a 3CD "Very Best of" with the biggest hits and classics, numerous original compositions as well as the most important tracks from "Music

"Around the World" will be released. From evergreens and greatest hits like "Biscaya" or "The Lonely Shepherd" to rarities like "Reflection" - 50 years James Last music history. The liner notes were written by Thomas Macho (co-author of the James Last biography: "Non Stop Leben"), who provides not only general biographical facts, but also his very personal thoughts on the happy sound and its success.
